Skit: Comex

Camille: Girl, I'm so ready to eat.

Lauren: Me too. I hope everything doesn't take too long to cook.

Camille: Right! We still haven't even prepped the meat.

Lauren: Well, let's get started!

Meanwhile

Juan: Ayyee! Happy birthday man! I brought you a bottle of wine.

Jooma: Wine? You should've brought a six-pack! Haha, I'm playing. Thanks bro.

Juan: Go ahead and open it because I want a glass.

Jooma: So you just bought this for yourself basically...wait, I don't have a wine opener.

Juan: I definitely did not bring one...

Jooma: So how do you expect me to open this?

Juan: You don't know anybody that lives here? Somebody gotta have one.

Jooma: You're my only friend...

Juan: Let's go to the store.

Jooma: Nah, I'm not driving in the rain.. This is killing my birthday vibe.

Meanwhile

Lauren: Yooooo, we are missing the most important seasoning. I swear I had some, but I guess I ran out.

Camille: What?? We do NOT have time or energy to go to the store. I'm hungry and getting irritated.

Lauren: I'm like 1000% sure somebody else in this apartment has some.

Camille: And how do you plan getting it from them..?

Lauren: Uhh, I could text some neighbors, but they reply super slowly... so I don't know. Why is everything going wrong so suddenly?

Magically appears

Abele: I'm Abele, your peacemaker and I'm here to tell you something that's going to make your day-to-day life much easier.

Everyone else: What the..??

Abele: I can connect you to all your desires.

Everyone else: ???

Abele: I've come bearing the gift of Comex, the Community Exchange app that will help you get any product you need within your apartment building from other residents! It's super easy!

Lauren & Jooma: using Comex on their phones

Lauren: Someone on here needs a wine opener. I have that! Hm...let's see if someone has what we need now too..

Abele: smiles Of course someone does.

Jooma: Yo, this girl upstairs has a wine opener & she's available to meet now!

Juan: Wow, that was quick. You just got on the app!

Jooma: She posted that she needs some seasoning for her chicken too. She can use some of mine.

Juan: Aye! Look at you making friends already.

Everyone meets and makes exchanges

Lauren: Thank you so much! You're a lifesaver. We are starving.

Jooma: No, thank you!

Juan: It's his birthday today too...

Lauren: Let's celebrate!!

Camille: Y'all can eat with us.

Jooma: & You can try out this wine too!

Juan: Looks like we have a plan!

Lauren: Wow, this app is lit.

Abele: Leave it to me to save the day.
